Our Commitment

For over a decade we have produced architectural quality concrete details at our workshop in Richmond BC, Canada.

We have defined our craft - creating our trademark look with unique textures that take skill, expertise and patience. Concrete is a timeless material and demands no compromises in its process to ensure performance in high heat environments.

We are a family run business, and we ensure a meticulous approach that has guided our development of these mantels in their integrity of design.

We are proud that our mantels embody the finest in craftsmanship, and it is our hope that you will find the style that is just right for your space.

We welcome you to join our family by the fire.
